

Incoming Students Regulation
Catholic University of Portugal – Faculty of Law
Porto Law School

1

(Object)

This Regulation is applicable to all international incoming students at Catholic University of Portugal (CUP) – Faculty of Law – Porto Law School

2

(Tuition fees)

Incoming students selected by foreign partner universities within bilateral agreements to carry out an exchange period at CUP – Faculty of Law – Porto Law School are exempted from tuition fees.

3

(Absences)

Incoming students have to comply with regulations regarding absences in force at CUP – Faculty of Law – Porto Law School.

4

(Assessment)

1. The student assessment regime in force at CUP – Faculty of Law – Porto Law School is fully applicable to incoming students, with the following adaptations.
2. As an alternative to the standard assessment regime adopted for each course, students can choose to undergo a single oral exam.
3. The scheduling of the oral exam may be anticipated in case of agreement between professors and students.
4. Grading of incoming students will follow the same criteria used for the students of CUP – Faculty of Law – Porto Law School, although language difficulties will be taken into account.

5

(Interpretation and integration)

All doubts arising from the interpretation and application of this Regulation, as well as those resulting from curricula transition or change of rules, will be solved by the Dean of (CUP) – Faculty of Law – Porto Law School, after consulting the Erasmus program Coordinator.